

11th World Assembly of Community Radio Broadcasters
Delegation of Representation and the Right to Vote in the AMARC Women's International Network

The undersigned (member's name) _____
Address: _____

Tel: () _____
Fax: () _____
Email: _____
AMARC office responsible: _____

Voting Member of the AMARC Women's International Network and Member of the World Association of Community Radio Broadcasters, delegate as our representative:

Mr/ Ms. * _____
Address _____

Too represent us fully including the right to cast our vote in any vote, by-election or general election for the AMARC Women's International Network and to speak in our name during debates and decisions of the AMARC Women's International Network taking place from August 10 to 14, in Accra, Ghana, and only during said meetings.

 Delegation of the right to vote in the Women's International Network to men or women will be accepted until the Assembly decides on the gender question for members of the Women's International Network.*

We are aware that this form is unique and cannot be substituted under any circumstances or for any reason. In case of loss, it is incumbent upon us to inform the AMARC Secretariat before the first round of voting is held in order to avoid any fraudulent use. No claim regarding the use of this Delegation of Representation and the Right to Vote made during the discussions or after the proclamation of the results of a vote will be entertained. The original of this Delegation of Representation and the Right to Vote will be valid for whatever purpose it may serve during AMARC11, without prejudice, on condition that it bears the AMARC seal and is duly filled out, dated and signed, without any corrections, erasures or amendments. No copy of any kind whatsoever will be accepted.

Signed by one authorized representatives of the above named Member:
At: _____	Date: _____
1 - Full Name :	_____
Position :	_____
Signature :	_____

NOTE: Your Delegation of Representation and the Right to Vote is valid only if you have paid your membership dues in full. Please note that any delay in receiving payment may lead to a delay in recording your fees as received.